Dans la jungle Lacandon des voix indigènes résonnent,
 Dans la jungle Lacandon des résistances raisonnent,
 Car ceux qui vivent sont ceux qui luttent, sont ceux qui raisonnent,
 Avec raison tant les causes sont justes et bonnes.

Tant le Chiapas se meurt de maladies curables,
 Tant leurs communautés réclament de l'eau potable,
 Tant l'exploitation est devenue inacceptable,
 Ils crient !Ya Basta! Pour ne plus qu'on les accablent...
 La toute puissante économie a fait d'un enfer leur vie,
 !Ya Basta! Justice, liberté, démocratie !
 L'état nie leurs droits, le profit tue leurs vies !Ya Basta!

Le feu ! La parole ! Ca crie « non » dans la foule !

Changer le monde, pas y prendre le pouvoir,
 Ne pas avoir la foi, mais plutôt porter l'espoir,
 Commander en obéissant, ne pas croire en la gloire,
 Tout ça car chacun est chacun, chacun peut le savoir.
 Des milliers de rivières coulent,
 et se rejoignent dans des torrents qu'ignorent.
 Des millions de murmures soufflent,
 et nourrissent les vents de la révolte et de la fronde.

Le feu ! La parole !
 Ca crie « non » dans la foule !

In Lacandon Jungle, native-voices resound ;
 In Lacandon Jungle, resistances reason,
 Those who live are those who struggle, are the one who reason,
 With reason, as causes are just and fair.

As Chiapas is dying from curable diseases,
 As their communities ask for drinkable water,
 As bondage became unacceptable,
 They scream !Ya Basta!

Power-Economy turned their lives into a hell,
 !Ya Basta! Justice, Freedom, Democracy !
 State suppresses their rights, profit kills their lives,
 !Ya Basta!

Fire and Speech !
 The crowd screams: "NO" !

Change the world, not take power, no faith, but hope,
 Command by obeying, don't trust in glory,
 Eachone is eachone, so eachone can know it.

Thousands of rivers spread, and join in torrents that rumble.
 Millions of weaspers blow, and feed the revolt-winds.

Fire and Speech !
 The crowd screams: "NO" !

CYBER-RESISTANCE

here are many techniques to keep of radar. All the details are on our internet page : mySpacE.com/dibimjoke. Here is some important information. Use Ixquick rather than Google for your searches on internet. This web search engine does not save any information on your searches. For your hot mail use a service like tem-pinbox.com who will protect your private life. Finally install TOR on your machine. This small software blurs your IP address (the one that links you, your machine, your postal address and your navigations on internet) and just like that you become impossible to locate: http://www.torproject.org. Now you're armed and invisible ! Have fun !

WHAT A TALENT!

Talents not to miss and to urgently discover. Introducing Timar de Ladesh, post-realist dandy. His successful albums make the greatest artists jealous. After Nothing's Gonna Change my Love 4U, here is Back to the
